Welcome to the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies

We are thrilled that you are considering joining our vibrant community of learners. As you explore your academic options, we want to introduce you to the exciting opportunities available within our diverse programs. Our department of interdisciplinary studies offers degrees in the following areas:

- Education
- General Studies
- Pre-Nursing
- Health, Physical Education, & Recreation
- Criminal Justice
- Human Services

Our department is committed to academic excellence and professional preparation. Whether you aspire to teach, serve in law enforcement, provide healthcare, or lead in community service, our associate and bachelor's degree programs offer rigorous coursework, hands-on learning, and mentorship from experienced faculty. Our curriculum is designed to equip you with the critical thinking, communication, and leadership skills necessary to excel in your chosen field.

Beyond the classroom, we encourage students to engage in enriching experiences such as research projects, internships, and student organizations. Our Pre-Nursing Club provides valuable networking and learning opportunities for aspiring healthcare professionals, while our FBI Academy offers insights for those interested in law enforcement and criminal justice. These programs, along with community engagement initiatives, help ensure that our students graduate ready to make an impact.

We invite you to visit our campus, meet our faculty and students, and experience firsthand what makes our programs unique. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact our department chair at Jennifer.Nelson@arkansasbaptist.edu. We look forward to welcoming you and supporting you on your academic journey.
